Successfully Working with Challenging Behaviors

The problem with these labels is that they imply that the children's behaviors are contemplated and intentional. We quickly find that usual reward-and-punishment strategies do not work with these children. Working with these kids often makes people feel frustrated, overwhelmed, guilt-ridden, and exhausted. Sometimes we reach the point where we feel the situation is hopeless. So what do we do? This session looks closely at these children and works to develop systems that help them, support you, assist their classmates, and empower their families.

About Scott Noyes

Scott Noyes has been professionally working, playing, writing and talking about children for thirty years. He teaches a graduate level course in "Challenging Behaviors," and an undergraduate course in "Positive Discipline." Scott's first book "Positive Discipline - That Works!" is in its fourth publishing. His second book, "Intentional Language" was released in the fall of 2003. His newest reader, "This Child is Driving Us Crazy - What Should We Do?" helps adults develop an effective behavior plan for children with feisty behaviors.

Scott's background includes being,

a primary careprovider for abused and neglected children

- a lead teacher in a parent cooperative

- a nonprofit childcare center director

- a state sponsored Child Sexual Assault Prevention trainer

- a childcare training specialist

- an Early Childhood Master Professional, workshop trainer endorsement, in New Hampshire
